

Selected Service-Learning Resources on the Web

- 1) National Service-Learning Clearinghouse
www.servicelearning.org
This is the place to go first. Resources include links, fact sheets listservs, K-12 specific resources including lesson plans and curricular resources, etc.
- 2) National Service-Learning Exchange
www.nslexchange.org
Through a network of five regional offices, the Exchange offers free technical assistance to service-learning practitioners.
- 3) National Service-Learning Partnership
www.service-learningpartnership.org
This is a coalition of leading service-learning advocates. Find information on the history of service-learning, research, and links to other service-learning organizations.
- 4) Learn and Serve America
www.learnandserve.gov
This is the only source of federal funding dedicated specifically to service-learning. LSA is a program of the Corporation for National and Community Service, a quasi-governmental agency.
- 5) Center for Information & Research on Civic Learning & Engagement (CIRCLE)
www.civicyouth.org
CIRCLE conducts and funds research on a variety of issues related to youth civic engagement, including service-learning.
- 6) National Youth Leadership Council
www.nylc.org
Based here in Saint Paul, NYLC hosts the world's largest annual service-learning conference. They also have a number of programs and services that advance the service-learning field.